- Navigation [Mapping Software]
- Navigation systems found in cell phones, cars, and PCs
- Displays maps using GPS (Global Positioning System) data and indicates the destination
- Provides voice-guided directions to the destination
- Provides visual directions to the destination on a map
- Provides traffic information (such as accidents)

- The Holy Spirit is the Guide for Our Lives

The Holy Spirit receives all information from Jesus.

The Holy Spirit shows the disciples the path they should take.

- [Acts 13] While fasting and praying, they are shown the path of their missionary journey.
- The Holy Spirit shows the way through dreams and visions.
- [Acts 16] The Holy Spirit reveals the path during Paul's missionary journey.
- [Acts 10] Peter sees a vision by the Holy Spirit and is led to the home of Cornelius, a Gentile.
- The Holy Spirit reveals His Word through prophecy.
- [Acts 21] A prophet foretells, by the Holy Spirit, Paul's imprisonment in Jerusalem.

- Navigation systems have their limitations.
  - You need to select your destination and choose your own route.
  - It's difficult to use if you don't have an overview of the map.
  - If there's a communication failure, the navigation system becomes completely unusable.
- The Holy Spirit receives everything from Jesus and reveals it to us.
  - Nothing is impossible. Communication barriers do not matter.
  - Let us seek the baptism of the Holy Spirit.
- Jesus desires for all His disciples to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit— so that the relationship between God the Father and Jesus may become the same as the relationship between Jesus and His disciples.
  - The baptism of the Holy Spirit is essential for receiving spiritual guidance.

Application

1. The baptism of the Holy Spirit is not a one-time experience. [It's not enough to have been filled in the past] Just as water baptism marks the beginning of walking in the way of Jesus, the baptism of the Holy Spirit marks the beginning of a spiritual journey in which we walk according to the Holy Spirit's guidance.
2. To Those Who Have Previously Received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, are you praying and being filled by the Holy Spirit every day?
   Are you asking the Holy Spirit every day for guidance on the path you should take?
   a) In your daily prayers, pray in the Spirit and walk the path He reveals to you. [Do not put your own way first.]
   b) Read the Word every day. Through the Word, you will be set free from the flesh and filled with the Spirit. [John 6:63]
3. For Those Who Have Not Received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit
   a) Seek it earnestly. Pray.
   b) Attend a service where people seek the Baptism of the Holy Spirit and ask for prayer.
   c) Listen to the Word.

"It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life."
(John 6:63)

4. May all believers be filled with the Holy Spirit and walk according to God's will, guided by the Holy Spirit.
